SERBRIS APPRAL

SATURDAY SORNING, JAN. 17, 18.4. HEMPHIS'S PROGRESS AND PROS-We congratulate ourselves in Memphis, and with reason, on the activity scheld in our streets, and on the generally prosperous state of things which has the people, But suppose that be had no ordinary character. In our staple aware what power the President has untrade we have special cause for satisfaction, for, spite of all the diffifaction, for, spite of all the diffi-culties and calamities that have at-tacked Memphis since the epizootic substituted the mack-eyed ex for the auxiliary are the cotton and her people are believed to be enjoying the privileges of selftrade has gone on increasing. The receipts thus far this season amount to 250,700 bales against 219,300 at the corresponding date last year. The price lots? is the President's inquiry when responding date last year. The price Governor Davis calls for troops to dethus far has compared well with that of cotton in other markets, and at the opening of the season was often beyond that of New Orleans.
